

Web publishing workflow

Please use this worksheet to help you diagram your web publishing workflow, in preparation for a small group discussion about functional requirements for a content management system. We will collect it from you at the end of the session.

Your web publishing process

